Raytown to Close Streets for 14th Annual Egg-Extravaganza and Community Parade

(Raytown, Mo.) – Saturday, April 4, at 10 am, marks the 14th year for the Egg-Extravaganza, a tradition hosted by the Raytown Main Street Association. The Raytown Police Department will temporarily close certain streets, for the Egg-Extravaganza Community Parade. The streets will close at 10 am and are as follows:

- 60th & Hardy
- 61st & Hardy
- 61st & Blue Ridge Boulevard southbound to 63rd Street
- 63rd & Blue Ridge Boulevard and Raytown Rd eastbound, westbound and northbound
- Raytown Road from 63rd to 61st Street

All closures will reopen at 12:30 pm or after the last float.

Important Reminders: Street and surface parking is available on Raytown Road. Drivers must arrive before 10 am to access parking on Raytown Road.

After the parade, Police will barricade Raytown Road from 62nd Street to 63rd Street for pedestrian safety during the Easter Egg Hunt.

Food trucks will be parked on 62nd Street across from the library.
